

An Interfaith Memorial Service for Those Who Suffer or Have Died From Lack of Health Care Coverage

Thursday, October 29, 2009 7:00-8:00 p.m.

Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Raleigh 3313 Wade Avenue
(two blocks east of Meredith College)

Each year, about 45,000 Americans die due to lack of health insurance, according to the American Journal of Public Health.

We honor them with this service of remembrance and hope by telling their stories and sharing prayers and music from many faith traditions.

Sponsored by the North Carolina Council of Churches, Unitarian Universalist Fellowship, Raleigh Mennonite Church, Fairmont United Methodist Church, St. Mark's Episcopal Church, Umstead Park United Church of Christ, Young Missionary Temple C.M.E. Church, Raleigh Episcopal Campus Ministry and Other Participating Faith Communities
