

HEALTH CARE FOR AMERICA NOW!

Subject Line: Host a party for health care—Be the first to see new documentary

Dear Health Care for America Now supporter:

On September 14, 2008 we will be releasing a new documentary called “Diagnosis: Now!” produced by Robert Greenwald at Brave New Films. Do you feel secure with your private health insurance? Many people don’t, watch the film to see why. Watch the trailer.

Click the image to watch the trailer.

At homes all across America people will gather to watch the short film and take action to win a guarantee of quality, affordable health care for all from Congress. Do you want to be a part of this historic campaign and one of the first to see this documentary? Sign up to host a house party today!

It is easy to host a house a party. Invite 10-15 friends and family, and post your party online to promote it to your neighbors. Use our online tool kit to get all the materials you need for the action items. We will mail you the DVD of the film, and it will also be available online on Sept. 14. (You have to sign up online to get the DVD.)

These house parties will be great way to kick-off this important effort in your community. Members of Congress sit up and listen when they know that people are organizing in their communities. The letters and support that you generate from these parties will make a huge difference in the campaign to win quality, affordable health care for all.

Host a party. Sign up here.

We appreciate your help, and together we can win real health care reform.

Regards,
Levana

P.S. If you can’t host a party, but know someone who might be interested -- please forward this to a friend.